Storage Solutions for Geological Drill Samples

EVCO Chip Box

Stores and organizes drill sample chips. Dovetails with RightCoreWare™ hardware and software for bar coding and tracking.

- Rugged plastic

- White or translucent
- Six snaps ensure single-hinge lid stays shut
- Easy open: twist slightly to pop, then lift lid
- Storage volume: 53 cubic inches
873 cubic centimeters

- 20 compartments, each individually sealed

- Each compartment: 2" D × 1" W × 1.25" H
5.08 cm D × 2.54 cm W × 3.175 cm H
- Compartment volume: 2.65 cubic inches
43.65 cubic centimeters

Rugged, reusable, and recyclable. Superior resistance to chemicals, sun, water, and cold. Reduces the total cost of ownership, when compared with metal, wooden, or waxed cardboard boxes. Rebuffs termites and beetles. Won't rust, corrode, swell, rot, or get waterlogged. Weather-tough: ideal for outdoor storage.
